INSTRUCTIONS - READ CAREFULLY

1. The petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten and signed and dated by the petitioner, under penalty of perjury. Any false statement of an important fact may lead to prosecution for perjury. Answer all questions in the proper space on the form.
2. Additional pages are not allowed except in answer to questions 11 and 20. Do not cite legal authorities. Any additional arguments or facts you want to present must be in a separate memorandum. The petition, including attachments, may not exceed 20 pages.
3. Receipt of the $5.00 filing fee or a grant of permission to proceed in forma pauperis must occur before the court will consider your petition.
4. If you do not have the necessary filing fee, you may ask permission to proceed in forma pauperis. To proceed in forma pauperis, (1) you must sign the declaration provided with this petition to show that you cannot prepay the fees and costs, and (2) if you are confined in TDCJ-CID, you must send in a certified In Forma Pauperis Data Sheet form from the institution in which you are confined. If you are in an institution other than TDCJ-CID, you must send in a certificate completed by an authorized officer at your institution certifying the amount of money you have on deposit at that institution. If you have access or have had access to enough funds to pay the filing fee, then you must pay the filing fee.

5. Only judgments entered by one court may be challenged in a single petition. A separate petition must be filed to challenge a judgment entered by a different state court.
6. Include all of your grounds for relief and all of the facts that support each ground for relief in this petition.
7. Mail the completed petition and one copy to the U. S. District Clerk. The "Venue List" in your unit law library lists all of the federal courts in Texas, their divisions, and the addresses for the clerk's offices. The proper court will be the federal court in the division and district in which you were convicted (for example, a Dallas County conviction is in the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division) or where you are now in custody (for example, the Huntsville units are in the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division).
8. Failure to notify the court of your change of address could result in the dismissal of your case.

All petitioners must answer the remaining questions:

20. For this petition, state every ground on which you claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and facts supporting them.

CAUTION: To proceed in the federal court, you must ordinarily first exhaust your available state-court remedies on each ground on which you request action by the federal court. Also, if you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

A. GROUND ONE: Violation of the Due process clause

no evidence / Insufficient evidence / violation of TDCJ protocol

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

There is insufficient evidence to find me guilty of a TDCJ rule violation "Damaging or Destroying" state property, which is a code 18.0 infraction. No one seen me damage anything, there was no witness statements, neither by the charging officers report or other staff or inmates account that could state that I intentionally damaged or destroyed state property. There was no photographs or other evidence that showed any property that was actually damaged or destroyed, much less by me. Two Elements must be proven to establish that I intentionally damaged or destroyed state property. One, Intent must be established; two, Damages must be adequately described. Elements that were not met in my case. As a matter of fact/record, I pleaded my innocence through the whole disciplinary proceeding even explained that I never destroyed anything, taken as a whole, it is clear that the DHO (disciplinary officer) was Decision was arbitrary, capricious or an abuse of discretion.

B. GROUND TWO: Violation of the 5th amendment

OF the U.S.C. Double Jeopardy clause / violation of TDCJ protocol

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

I was punished twice for essentially the same infraction. On 3-16-19 I was caught in possession of tobacco paraphernalia (case # 20190173278) on 3-19-19 I was found guilty, by my own admission, and punished accordingly: 20 days restriction for the following: recreation, commissary, phone and cell restriction. Also dropped from a line class 5-3 to a 5-4. On 3-21-19 I was served with a major case (instant case) infraction, "Damaging or Destroying" state property. On 3-27-19 at my disciplinary hearing, I told the disciplinary officer (DHO) that I didn't destroy anything and asked to see the evidence against me. The DHO showed me the same photograph that was used against me at my prior hearing for possession of tobacco paraphernalia. I told the DHO that that's the same evidence used against me on my other case and I was already punished for it. ~~that case~~ The DHO disregarded what I said and continued to punish as follows: 45 days restriction for rec, commissary, phone and cell, dropped from line class L-2 to L-3, 50 "good time" days taken from me and charged $154.50 for damage to state property. Also was put in 64 status. According to TDCJ policy, if it's not two distinct incident or separate incidents or "when it's impossible to commit a particular offense with out, at the same time and by the same conduct, committing a less serious offense, the latter is a lesser included offense" meaning I should have been charged with two infractions on one I-210 sheet (offense report sheet) TDCJ punished me twice for something that I should have been punished for only once, violating TDCJ protocol and Double Jeopardy clause of the amendment of the U.S.C. as well as the due process clause of the 14th amendment.

GROUND THREE:

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

D. GROUND FOUR:

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

21. Relief sought in this petition: I would like my Disciplinary Case overturned, my 50 "good time" days returned and the $154.<sup>50</sup> I was charged, and already paid, returned to my trust ~~acco~~ Fund account. I would like my line class of L-2 returned to me, as well as my G-2 custody level.

22. Have you previously filed a federal habeas petition attacking the same conviction, parole revocation or disciplinary proceeding that you are attacking in this petition? ☐ Yes ☒ No
If your answer is "Yes," give the date on which each petition was filed and the federal court in which it was filed. Also state whether the petition was (a) dismissed without prejudice, (b) dismissed with prejudice, or (c) denied.

N/A

N/A

If you previously filed a federal petition attacking the same conviction and such petition was denied or dismissed with prejudice, did you receive permission from the Fifth Circuit to file a second petition, as required by 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(3) and (4)? ☐ Yes ☐ No

23. Are any of the grounds listed in question 20 above presented for the first time in this petition? ☒ Yes ☐ No

If your answer is "Yes," state briefly what grounds are presented for the first time and give your reasons for not presenting them to any other court, either state or federal.

All grounds are presented for first time, since this is a TDCJ disciplinary proceeding that I am attacking

24. Do you have any petition or appeal now pending (filed and not yet decided) in any court, either state or federal, for the judgment you are challenging? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," identify each type of proceeding that is pending (i.e., direct appeal, art. 11.07 application, or federal habeas petition), the court in which each proceeding is pending, and the date each proceeding was filed. N/A

25. Give the name and address, if you know, of each attorney who represented you in the following stages of the judgment you are challenging:

- (a) At preliminary hearing: Patrick Howard P.O. Box 74 Bangs, tx 76823
- (b) At arraignment and plea: Patrick Howard P.O. Box 74 Bangs, tx 76823
- (c) At trial: Patrick Howard P.O. Box 74 Bangs, tx 76823
- (d) At sentencing: Patrick Howard P.O. Box 74 Bangs, tx 76823
- (e) On appeal: ~~Patrick Howard~~ N/A
- (f) In any post-conviction proceeding: N/A

(g) On appeal from any ruling against you in a post-conviction proceeding: N/A

Timeliness of Petition:

26. If your judgment of conviction, parole revocation or disciplinary proceeding became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) does not bar your petition.<sup>1</sup>

Since I exhausted all remedies of TDCJ appeal process on ~~process on~~ 8-1-19, which is when my step two was denied, I am well within the year period, and since I recieved Final notice of the denile of my step two grievance on 8-29-19,
I am Also well within the 30 days approved by the govt. code

<sup>1</sup> The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA"), as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d), provides in part that:

- (1) A one-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of -
  - (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;
  - (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;
  - (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
  - (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.
- (2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

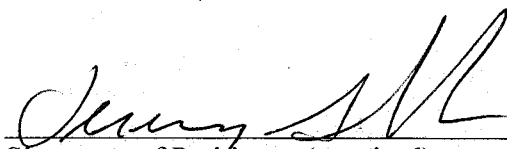

Wherefore, petitioner prays that the Court grant him the relief to which he may be entitled.
